3D Archery Shoot, Steelhead River, Les Schwab Kids Free Trout Pond, Hundreds Of New Products & Thousands Of Sale Items Punctuate Expanded Washington Sportsmen's Show®

Puyallup, WA - The 38th annual Washington Sportsmen's Show presented by Leupold, returns to the Washington State Fair Events Center in Puyallup, Washington, January 29th - February 2nd, 2025. New for 2025, the 1st Annual 3D Open Archery Challenge promises a $5,000 purse and $2,500 to the first place winner! After an eight year hiatus, The Steelhead River, is back with top pros sharing their expertise in catching steelhead. It's the only indoor river of its kind in the world, complete with live steelhead! Be sure to bring the kids to the Les Schwab Kids Free Trout Pond. It's free to kids 12 and under and everything's provided. We're thrilled to welcome back public lands advocate and hunter, Randy Newberg. Randy's a national treasure and shares his deep hunting knowledge and wilderness wisdom in his seminars starting on Thursday of the show. The biggest and best fishing and hunting gear sale in the West is at the show with deep, show-only discounts on thousands of popular items.

What: The Washington Sportsmen's Show is Washington's largest and most complete Sportsmen's Show. Addicted Fishing will be showing their new full-length movie, "Adventure To Unknown Seas", produced just for the show! They'll be bringing the entire Addicted Fishing crew along with LOTS of giveaways and fun at their Friday night BASH. Win one of hundreds of great fishing, hunting and outdoor products at the Western Washington Toyota Dealers Association booth and their Fistful of Cheaters promotion. It's free and everyone wins! Survival expert Brett Stoffel shares his expertise at daily seminars as well as the Western Washington Toyota Dealers Association booth every day of the show.
